

Anne Lumsden Cook
Art Administrator
Capital One Financial Corporation

Anne Cook is the Art Program Manager for Capital One, a Fortune 500 company that offers a broad spectrum of financial products and services to consumers, small businesses and commercial clients.

Since 2002, Ms. Cook has served as the Art Administrator for Capital One in Richmond, VA, where she leads the development and implementation of Capital One's Corporate Art Program. In this role she is responsible for the purchase of 2-D and 3-D works for a permanent collection of more than 2,000 pieces of artwork. She also oversees the installation of more than 70 Rotating Exhibitions annually in Capital One campuses and facilities in Virginia, Massachusetts and Texas. An annual lecture series is sponsored by the Art program at Capital One's West Creek Campus in Richmond, VA, which brings in local and regional artists and collectors to present information to associates on appreciating and collecting artwork across different media.

Prior to managing the Art Program, Ms. Cook spent five years as a Team Lead and Graphic Designer with Capital One's Marketing Department. She also taught Art Education in Henrico County and Richmond City Public schools for four years and worked as a freelance graphic artist for eight years.

Ms. Cook earned a B.A. in Liberal Arts, with a Fine Arts/Painting Major and Communications Studies Minor, from Virginia Polytechnic Institute, Blacksburg, VA and a Masters of Art Education from Virginia Commonwealth University, Richmond, VA.

FCCA's September --National Art Exhibit Layers

Opening reception: First Friday, September 4, from 6-8:30 p.m; Juror's Talk at 6 p.m;

Exhibit dates: August 30 - September 27, 2009;

Anne Cook, juror.