Shadow in the Garden

March 2010 FCCA Member's Gallery Show

Reflections of the nature of things and how we see them. Art quilts which delve into our landscape and the things we find there.

I can not remember a time when I did not, or was not, interested in making art. My influences are broad. I love children's illustration, ethnic, Japanese, ancient art, the Impressionists and landscape art. Books and music play an enormous part in my creative process. I love ancient civilizations and history in general. I am interested in context as well as content when looking at and making art.
