

Finding Fredericksburg

Photographs and Photo Collage by
Maura H. Harrison

Opening Reception
Friday, August 7, 6:00-8:30 p.m.

Members' Gallery
Fredericksburg Center for the Creative Arts
813 Sophia Street, Fredericksburg, VA 22401

August 2-29, 2009

This show at the Fredericksburg Center for the Creative Arts (FCCA) is a representative collection of the artist's continuing exploration of historic sites around the city and the region. Visitors will recognize scenes from popular destinations—Downtown Fredericksburg, Chatham, Belmont, and the National Park Service Battlefields—and also from lesser known sites, Hollywood Cemetery in Richmond and Ellwood in Orange County.

Maura is a professional designer, photographer and artist. Recent awards include two honorable mentions in FCCA national juried shows and two 2nd place awards in the Uniquely Stafford and Uniquely Fredericksburg shows.

Maura is the Creative Director of The Design Room, Inc. (www.thedesignroominc.com), a local information and communications design firm. She holds Bachelor's and Master's degrees from George Mason University, and she lives with her husband and four children in Spotsylvania County.
