The selection process for Members' Gallery Exhibits has been refined over the last several years to be as fair, anonymous and confidential as possible. A panel of jurors (academics and/or working art professionals) is chosen to meet and evaluate the readiness of artists to have a solo or two person show. The panel will be looking for artists with a unified body of work well-presented by high quality images. At the end of the process, each artist will receive an evaluation form on which the panelists independently score the work and make written comments based on strength of composition and mastery of the medium. This is a selection process with a bonus and a unique opportunity for artistic growth.

As gallery space permits, those artists whose scores reflect a readiness to show will be offered a particular month in 2011. Artists should receive their invitations to exhibit and/or evaluations by September 1.
